

Two New Learning Communities

Spiritual Conversations

Learn how to share your faith confidently

What- This is a four week learning community taught by Pastor Mike Bayly and Michael Gunter. This study will focus on why we should share our faith, and how we should share our faith with our friends, family and neighbors. If you have ever wanted to share you faith but felt unequipped or unprepared this would be a good learning community for you.

Who- Everyone is welcome to attend. We will have times for LifeGroups to meet and discuss during each meeting. (It is not mandatory for LifeGroups to attend.)

When- Starting Wednesday, April 26th from 6:30-7:30 PM and meeting each Wednesday until May 17th.

Where- The Commons

When Helping Hurts

4 week study

Videos based on the books by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert

Good intentions are not enough. Join us to explore how to help the poor without causing unintended harm, and how to effectively engage in poverty alleviation ministries. Those who serve with CARITAS, Rebuilding Together, Spirit of Baseball, short term missions trips, the food pantry, and other ministries will find this extremely valuable.

Open to everyone.

Led by Jenny Hull, Sandy Lawson, and Suzanne Sprouse.

April 23 to May 21 (no meeting on Mother's Day)

Sunday nights

6:30 to 8:00 pm

Gayton Baptist Community Room

(First floor, midway between the Welcome Desk and the fireplace.)

Drop-ins are welcome, but letting us know in advance if you plan to attend is helpful.

Participants are not required to have the book. However, several copies are available on loan or purchase from the church by request, or you may purchase your own copy.

(ISBN 978-0-8024-1156-3)

For more information contact stacy@gaytonchurch.org.